

Additional Information

Access Information

The Conference has accessible meeting space. Sign language interpreters and documents in alternate formats will be available upon request. The Conference will provide limited personal care attendant services. Participants requiring substantial assistance are asked to secure their own attendants.

Conference participants should keep in mind that some colleagues have chemical sensitivities to such things as scented personal care products and smoke. All would appreciate your thoughtful consideration. Smoking is prohibited.

Author Signing of Fanning the Creative Spirit

Closing session speakers Charlie and Maria Girsch's book, Fanning the Creative Spirit, will be provided to all Conference participants with registration materials. Take advantage of the opportunity to have your copy signed by the authors. Time and location to be announced.

Story Tent — Monday Only

Please share your story at the on-site "Story Tent," which will be staffed by videographers and interviewers from the Center on Aging and Community of the Indiana Institute on Disability and Community. Story videos will be posted online. Every story is interesting, and every story is a worthwhile legacy for us all.

Annual Disability Poll

The fourth annual disability poll will provide an opportunity to share your ideas on important topics. Computers and tables will be set up in the registration area.

Continuing Education Units (CEUs)

The Conference has approval for 12 continuing education units (CEUs) through the Indiana University School of Social Work.

Social Security

Social Security will provide information on the programs they offer for people with disabilities. A representative will be on hand to answer your questions and provide additional resources.

Lodging

You are responsible for your own accommodations (unless you are a scholarship recipient). Note that non-scholarship recipients who need an accessible room should contact Sandy Kite Hunt. A block of rooms at the Hyatt Regency Indianapolis has been reserved at special rates. Please mention the Conference when registering to receive the discounted rate.
